Premier Mussolini's Navy Reported to Be Preparing For Action; British Alert

INVESTIGATORS VISIT SCENE OF ACTRESS DEATH

Two Men Friends Of Thelma Todd Have Entered Case

Los Angeles, Dec. 26.—(AP)—An unexpected visit to the scene of actress Thelma Todd's "mystery" death was made today by investigators and was accompanied by reports of new evidence in the case.

E. Clair Overholzer declined comment on the reports as the grand jury criminal complaints committee, of which he is chairman, inspected the blonde comedienne's sidewalk cafe and the garage where her body was found Dec. 15.

Two men who perhaps know Miss Todd better than any others were projected tonight as the key figures in final grand jury study of her death. They are Roland West, "best friend" and business partner of the blue-eyed comedienne, and Pasquale (Pat) DiCenzo, her former husband.

These two investigators indicated they will be asked to describe as the grand jury closes its inquiry Friday the pattern of the blonde actress' life and the circumstances preceding her death.

Investigators also said they still were attempting to identify and locate the mysterious San Francisco man whom Miss Todd reportedly said she was having a "sacred romance" with.

West, short, hawk-faced, his bushy black hair shot through with streaks of gray, was Miss Todd's partner in a beachside and the occupant of a beachside adjoining hers above the restaurant.

She was found dead in her bathroom, the police said, after a party with West, Monday, Dec. 15. A coroner's jury held she died accidentally of fumes from the exhaust but recommended further study.

DiCenzo, tall, dark, a film colony boss, remained left the movie colony for New York the day after Miss Todd's body was found but agreed to come here and testify.

DiCenzo and West never have met, the coroner said, but both were said to be involved in the last party Miss Todd attended. He was not alone when seated next to her at the Trocadero Cafe in Hollywood, Saturday night, Dec. 14. The chair remained vacant all night. DiCenzo was at the cafe but as the scene of another actress' death, Margaret Lindsay of the films.

London, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini's navy was reported in reliable quarters tonight to be preparing for action while Great Britain's army, navy and air force are on the alert from Gibraltar in the western Mediterranean to Aden in the Red Sea.

Approximately 13,000 naval specialists, most of whom formerly served in gun or powder rooms, were reported to be on duty, said dispatches from the Italian capital.

Informed sources here believed the navy was preparing for possible "events" in case Anthony Eden, the new British Foreign Secretary, persuades the League of Nations to impose sanctions on Italy.

The tension in Europe caused southeastern nations to speed up military precautions of their own, to tighten their alliances and to examine the possibilities of new agreements.

General staffs of the little entente powers—Rumania, Yugoslavia, and Czechoslovakia—were understood to be ready for any necessary action. At the same time the increasing complications of Italy's foreign relations were reported to be worrying Mussolini's friends in the Danubian basin.

Warfare in Africa went on. One of Italy's fleet scouting planes was shot down and its pilot beheaded. The Ethiopian government announced the plane was transmitting with another over Dagala, Bari, on the southern front. The pilot was not immediately identified.

It was the boxing day holiday here and the foreign office was deserted, but many thousands of British soldiers, sailors and airmen kept a sharp vigil along the "Empire Route" through Egypt.

Talk pushed on with its Ethiopian campaign, with Rome especially waiting the next move on sanctions by Anthony Eden, Britain's new and young foreign secretary.

Premier Laval of France was threatened with a possible overthrow when the Chamber of Deputies debated on foreign policy tomorrow.

CHINESE TROOPS GO INTO ACTION; TENSION GROWS

500 Soldiers Attempt To Halt Students Near Nanking

By Morris J. Harris
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Shanghai, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Chinese troops went into action today to block an anti-Japanese student demonstration as warlike officials of the Chinese Republic sought to check a growing Sino-Japanese tension.

An armored train bearing 500 soldiers was dispatched to prevent students from Shanghai, traveling toward Nanking in a commandeered train from reaching the capital.

Serious effects resulting from the approaching Christmas day of Tang Yuen-tien, pro-Japanese vice minister of Chinese railways, were predicted by Maj. Gen. Renzuke Inoue, military attaché here of the Japanese embassy.

He said the shoving was a result of Tang's efforts to "normalize" relations between Japan and China.

Because of the growing tension government officials redoubled their efforts to suppress peacefully student demonstrations. An emissary was sent to beg the Shanghai students to abandon their attempt to reach Nanking and instead to take up their grievances through an authorized delegation.

Plans for a huge demonstration by Nanking students were nipped when the government issued a proclamation forbidding public gatherings or parades there.

Japanese military sources said the assassination of Tang "throws a dark shadow over the future of Sino-Japanese relations."

Marital law, ordered after the slaying, remained in force in Shanghai and in Nanking. Military regulations were laid down at Hankow, where demonstrations against the North China autonomy movement have been serious.

French police insisted that the Tong assassination, which took place in the French concessions was a political one. A spokesman of the Japanese embassy said it was "glaring evidence of anti-Japanese sentiment, leaving no doubt of the trend of Chinese sentiment toward Japan."

FILM COMEDIAN DENIES HE SET FIRE IN HOUSE

Tom Healy Admits He Paid Visit To Actress

Los Angeles, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Tom Healy, film and vaudeville comedian, said through his attorney tonight he could produce witnesses showing him in the Christmas "celebration" that landed him in jail on suspicion of arson.

Healy was arrested on complaint of his former comedy partner, Marian W. Bonnell, Dec. 25. She said he broke into her Santa Monica canyon home and built a bonfire on the kitchen stove, using household effects for fuel, early yesterday morning.

Police Capt. Paul Wolfe said tonight Miss Bonnell had declined to prosecute but the matter could not be abandoned.

Marian Healy, the comedian's sister, expressed belief he merely was overindulging in a "Christmas impulse."

Tomorrow's hearing will be on the habeas corpus writ by which the comedian was released from jail after he was booked on suspicion of attempted arson.

He came to my house, banged on the door and demanded that I let him in," Miss Bonnell told police.

"I don't remember anything like that," Healy said.

"He kept pounding and I fired one shot to warn him," said Miss Bonnell.

"I called on Bonnell," said the comedian. "I was told not to come any further and a bullet hit my hand. I turned and left."

Miss Bonnell declared he did not leave.

"After I fired the shot," she said, "he drove his hand through a glass door and opened it. He stormed into the house and while I screamed for help he broke pieces of furniture into smoking shreds."

He pushed on with his Ethiopian campaign, with Rome especially waiting the next move on sanctions by Anthony Eden, Britain's new and young foreign secretary.

Nation Counts 108 Deaths From Cold Wave That Has Many States In Its Grip

Topeka Negro Has Bankers Up Creek; Must Wade or Row

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Hezekiah Brown, Topeka Negro, lost a foreclosure action to a Topeka bank but has the bankers "up a creek" and "Yasabai!"

The judgment gave the bank title to 19 of the 20 acres in Hezekiah's plat adjoining the Shunganunga creek here. Kansas law permits a defendant to retain one acre of his own choosing as his homestead, the only claim being it must all be in one piece.

Hezekiah chose a 15-foot strip starting at the creek bank and running along the outer edge of the property back to the creek. To reach their newly acquired land, the bankers must row a boat or wade up the Shunganunga.

MANY NEW YORK INDUSTRIES ARE RACKET VICTIMS

15 Major Criminals In Charge Of Activities

New York, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Twelve of fifteen major criminals were held by a special grand jury today to be the "masterminds" behind a maze of racketeering which terrorizes many of New York City's business organizations.

Summarizing its activities since it was convened last September 3, the extraordinary grand jury which has heard evidence in special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey's investigation reported:

"From the witnesses who have appeared before us we find that many of the industries in this city are victimized by racketeers. This racketeering is largely centralized in the hands of a dozen or 15 major criminals, most of them totally unknown to the public."

The grand jury did not name the racketeers, adding that they operate through lieutenants who in turn operate through henchmen.

The investigation covered the loan shark racket and the Trade and Protective Associations which guarantee to give the business man immunity from labor troubles.

"We find that most of the rackets in this city are based on the systematic extortion of money from business by the criminal underworld, through protected trade and protective associations, labor union racketeers or plain intimidation," the report said.

Asking to be relieved by another grand jury, the jurors said: "It will take two grand juries working simultaneously two or more years to complete this work."

Articles of the key racketeers, the report said, were "well disguised and the trail running to the actual leaders is often almost obliterated."

Business of the racketeering is headed by Foreman L. Selton Lindsey, vice president of the New York Life Insurance company, here out suspicion of a previous grand jury that master minds were behind the city's crime syndicates.

Evasion of business men on the witness stand was cited in the jury's summary as one of the difficulties encountered.

"We have been shocked by the reluctance of some business men, who are victims of these rackets, to give testimony," the report said.

Abraham Finkel, cafeteria operator, was committed to jail today under a 30 day sentence for contempt of court. He was cited in contempt after giving "evasive" answers before the grand jury which sought to learn the identity of men to whom he reputedly was paying tribute.

Misfortune Hits Again At Family of Edgar Phaneuf

Townsend, Mass., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Misfortune struck again today at the family of Edgar Phaneuf.

Last month Phaneuf's seven-month-old daughter was beaten to death. A former lodger in the home is being held on a charge of having caused the death of the baby.

A week before the child's death, Phaneuf's automobile caught fire and was destroyed.

Early today, the Phaneuf home burned to the ground. The parents and their three children fled into icy-cold weather clad only in nightclothes.

Nothing was saved.

YOUTH JAILED
Wise, Va., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Haugeman Pailin, 16-year-old Wise county youth, was committed to jail today under a 30 day sentence for contempt of court. He was cited in contempt after giving "evasive" answers before the grand jury which sought to learn the identity of men to whom he reputedly was paying tribute.

STREPTOCOCCUS DECLARED KING OF GERM WORLD

Apparently Causes A Number Of Diseases

By John Lear
Associated Press Staff Writer
Chicago, Dec. 26.—(AP)—New evidence that the streptococcus is a "king" of all "germs" of the germ world was reported today.

This one type of bacteria apparently causes a number of diseases, Dr. John H. Bailey, research bacteriologist of the University of Illinois Medical College said.

The type of disease may depend upon the patient, he explained. That is, the streptococcus infecting man may be the same but due to differences in people different diseases are produced.

He cited a scarlet fever study on which he will report in detail at the annual meeting of the Society of American Bacteriologists in New York on Saturday.

"There are three different kinds of streptococcus causing scarlet fever in Chicago," he asserted.

"A patient may have one type of streptococcus in his throat at the beginning of scarlet fever, and toward the end of the disease he will have a different type."

"It is not the same man can change one type to another."

This may be the reason why streptococcus cause so many different diseases, such as scarlet fever, septic throat, child-bed fever and rheumatism.

"Some doctors and nurses vaccinated against scarlet fever had sore throats due to the same type of streptococcus present in their patients' throats. These nurses and doctors could not have scarlet fever, but they could have spread the disease to susceptible people."

Dr. Bailey proposed a new name for this type of sore throat: "Scarletococcus angina."

He said his experiments—a step further toward explanation of the spread of streptococcal infections, the most common invaders of the body in the wake of head, colds and sore throats—will continue with the aid of the Illinois state health department.

Protestants In Plea For Unity With Catholics

Claim Unification Would Aid In Battle Against Anti-Christians

New York, Dec. 26.—(AP)—A plea by a group of Protestant Episcopal clergymen and other persons for unification of their church with that of Roman Catholics to combat rampant anti-Christian forces in the world met a mixed reaction today.

The appeal was sent out by 20 Protestant Episcopal clergymen, two laymen and a religious order, all members of the National Council of the American Committee of the Church Unity Octave Council.

"They said 'overturn the religion' in Mexico, Spain, Russia and Germany indicated that 'the forces of the day have moved too strong for Protestantism and it is disintegrating rapidly.'"

The Rev. James Dewold Perry, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, said at Providence, R. I., that "there is evidently the confusion between the Roman Catholic church and Catholic teachings, which is something altogether different."

The Rev. Wilfred Parsons, S. J., editor and publisher of a National Catholic weekly, expressed appreciation of the "clear-headed view" of the committee's appeal.

Will Not Grant Hauptmann Stay

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Governor Harold G. Hoffman indicated today he had no reason now to re-arrest Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

Confronted with published reports he was prepared to grant Hauptmann a stay of execution should the court of Pardons refuse clemency, the governor, through his press representative, William Conklin, said at the present time I have no such plan in mind.

Earlier, the governor said any statement that a reprieve was contemplated was unauthorized.

Hauptmann's petition for mercy may come before the court when it convenes Monday on another matter. It may fix a date for consideration of the Hauptmann appeal and decide whether to meet at state prison to hear Hauptmann personally.

PAY DIVIDEND
Chicago, Dec. 26.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs today announced a dividend of $3 a share, the first disbursement to stockholders since 1933 when $6 a share was paid. The checks have been mailed to stockholders of record December 21.

Roosevelt Drafts Congress Outline; Neutrality, Bonus Will Furnish Fireworks

ACCIDENTS IN INDUSTRY COST 37 MILLIONS

Department Of Labor Issues Report For 1935

Washington, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Early and lively congressional battles over neutrality and soldiers' bonus legislation became a certainty today as President Roosevelt and cabinet spokesmen outlined plans for the second session of the 74th congress, opening a week from tomorrow.

The president, closing himself in the white house proper, spent virtually the entire day on his annual legislative and cabinet message. Both probably will be submitted during the first three days of the session.

On Capitol Hill, announcement came from a senatorial quarter close to the administration that efforts would be made to work out a compromise bonus bill with the executive. It was added that no general tax legislation would be put forward at the session.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) of the senate finance committee spoke of the bonus and taxes in an interview marked by a definite statement there would be no manufacturers sales tax to supplant the preceding levies if the AAA is held unconstitutional.

Harrison further predicted "an unusual short session" devoted primarily to appropriations, bills and possible amendments to emergency acts enacted in previous sessions.

Senator Nye (R-Ind.) chairman of the senate's special investigations committee, signaled the neutrality fight. He said he and a fellow committee member, Clark (D-Mo.), would introduce legislation to bar shipment of all commodities to war zones in American vessels.

"If warring nations want the goods," Nye said, "they should be required to come and get them in their own ships."

This proposal is opposed by Senator Borah (Idaho) ranking Republican on the foreign relations committee and others. Borah believes in "unfettered freedom of the seas and that American vessels should be permitted at least to carry on normal peacetime trade in materials such as steel, oil and cotton."

Industrial activity for 1935, measured by the index of employment of all reporting industries, was declared to have declined to the lowest level in the 12 years—1923 to 1935—for which records have been kept by the department.

Compensable fatal and non-fatal accidents numbered 25,452, the smallest figure of any year for which data has been collected. Of these, 453 or 1.8 per cent resulted in death.

Handling of objects, responsible for 5,433 accidents or 21.1 per cent, was the leading cause of injury to the 23,500 men involved in mishaps. Falls ranked second with 3,970, automobiles third with 2,668, power-driven working machines fourth with 2,049 and fall objects, not handled by injured, fifth with 1,882.

The most frequent causes of the 1935 accidents among female workers—comprising 7.7 per cent of all accidents for the year—were ranked as follows: Falls, 655; handling of objects, 350; power-driven machines, 306; striking against object or persons, 156.

Automobiles chief cause of fatalities to both sexes, resulted in 91 deaths. Explosions caused 68 deaths, including the 30 lives lost in the Mowogue mine disaster. Falls, third in the causes of fatal accidents, took 60 lives.

Train Crashes Into Auto; Six Persons Dead

Agent Says Motorist Drove In Path Of Fast Train

Salem, Ill., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Six persons including three children and their parents, were killed today when their automobile was struck by the National Limited, a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train.

The crash occurred at 20.15 p.m. when the car, driven by a man, was in the path of the train.

S. P. White, Flora, Ill., school teacher, his wife Irene, their children, Philip, 12, Mary Ellen, 9 and Jean, 6, and White's uncle Hanson Montgomery, 65, Wayne county farmer.

The Whites, accompanied by Montgomery, were returning home after a visit to Mount Vernon, Ill. The car broke down, a railing near the station, struck the baggage room door, set it afire and necessitated a call for the Salem fire department. The damage to the building was slight.

None of the bodies was in the car when it struck the building.

Rally for Baptist Young People Will Be Held on Sunday

Twenty-seven Churches in District to Take Part in Sessions Here

The Baptist Young People's Union will hold a district rally at the First Baptist church in this city next Sunday with 27 churches sending representatives. This is the Springfield district association, which will hold the state oratorical contest at this time.

Elimination contests have been held in all churches previous to this meeting. Two weeks ago the local church held its contest, and which was won by Miss Thyrus Smith who will represent the Jacksonville church in the contest Sunday. The successful contestant will give the orations at the Youth Congress in March at Alton. The theme of the orations is "Christ's Call to Youth—Evangelism, Training and Service," Mark 1-17. A potluck dinner will be served at 1:30 p. m., and will be followed by the rally and orations. Arthur Lower, of Springfield will be the presiding officer. Miss Ruth Jones and Miss Mae Weinberg of South Seventh Street Baptist church, Springfield, will sing a duet. Elliott Avenue Baptist group, Springfield will conduct the devotional service and Rev. A. P. White, pastor of Elliott Avenue Baptist church will be the speaker. There will be five judges for the contest, including one pastor, one lawyer or teacher. The other judges are selected by the contest commission.

Millard Forwood is the president of the Jacksonville B. Y. U., and is general chairman for the meeting. The dinner arrangements will be made by the Fellowship Commission of the Jacksonville church with Miss Ina Stewart as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ward of Decatur were local Christmas callers.

Peoria County Boy Champion Speller; Miss Colwell 7th

Morgan County Girl Among the Runners-up in State
Match at Capital

BY WILLIS YOUNG
Associated Press Staff Writer
Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Dana Stewart, a 14-year-old eighth grader in a Peoria county rural school, yesterday won the state grade school spelling championship.

Young Stewart misspelled only three words in the list of 200 submitted to fifty-two county champions at the annual contest marking the opening of the State Teachers' convention. The champion's mistakes were on "Jeremiad," "emollient," and "magnitise."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, he attends the Henry school in Peoria county. County grade school champions in the contest comprised forty girls and twelve boys.

LaVern Frank of Ford county placed second. He and Vincent Wasilewski of Sangamon at first tied for second with 191 correct words each, but Vincent misspelled "roadster" on a runoff list of twenty-five words and dropped to third place.

Albert Kaufman of Macoupin county placed fourth and Robert Malone of Saline county fifth, both scoring 186 on the 200. Robert was three behind on the runoff.

William Westfall of Lawrence county was sixth, Virginia Colwell of Morgan county seventh, and Virginia Getz of Tazewell county eighth.

Some county champions misspelled more than half the 200 words, but most winners sailed over such words as meringue, kinetoscope, Calligraphy, candelabrum, ferule, cyclorama, intaglio and mauveolium.

Virginia Colwell of Alexander, a pupil of Miss Grace Armstrong, was Morgan county's representative in the state spelling contest. She is 11 years old, and a daughter of Mrs. Mae Colwell of Alexander.

Five Foot Drifts Block Some Roads Near Literberry

Country Roads Impassable
in Some Places; Cars
Found in Drifts

Highway crews started work yesterday clearing snow-blocked roads in the vicinity of Literberry and Sinclair, some of the drifts being five feet deep. The drifts resulted from the Christmas eve snow which was only three inches in certain places.

The snow drifted badly on north and south roads, entirely blocking traffic. Yesterday morning workmen dug out several automobiles that had been almost buried in drifts. In some instances the work crews did not know to whom the automobiles belonged.

One drift near Savage station blocked the highway to a depth of more than five feet. Highway workers and WPA employees tackled the larger drifts with shovels and opened the roads for one way traffic.

No hard roads in Morgan county were blocked by the snow.

Rabbit Is Winter Delicacy

RESEMBLES POULTRY IN TEXTURE AND FOOD VALUE

By MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

Rabbit in all the good ways it can be cooked is that "something" that you women write me for about this time of the year.

Wild rabbits have always been an important source of food during their season, and within the past few years the value of the domesticated rabbit as a producer of food has been recognized and appreciated.

Rabbit salad will prove a welcome supper party when a hearty salad is wanted. Steamed or boiled rabbit is better for this purpose because it is not so dry as roast rabbit.

Rabbit Salad

Two cups diced rabbit, 1 cup finely shredded cabbage, 1-2 cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup diced grape fruit, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 5 stuffed olives, paprika, French dressing, mayonnaise.

Marinate rabbit in French dressing for one hour. Drain and combine with cabbage, green pepper and grape fruit which have been sprinkled with salt and sugar. Add mayonnaise to make moist and toss lightly with a fork to mix. Arrange on a bed of curly endive and garnish with olives cut in slices.

Rabbit also makes an excellent stew. Onions, celery, carrots and potatoes combine well to make a savory dish for a cold winter evening. The rabbit is disjointed in pieces for serving and put on to cook for an hour before the onions and celery are added. When almost done, the carrots and potatoes, pared and cut in neat dice, are added. It will take about three hours to cook the stew. Serve it with a jellied tomato salad and deep dish apple pie some evening when you intend to spend the afternoon out. Put the rabbit and onions and celery on

Tomorrow's Menu

Breakfast: Pineapple juice, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon, cornmeal pancakes, syrup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon: Oyster shortcake, cress with French dressing, mixed fruits in lemon jelly, cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner: Rabbit stew, corn croquettes, tomato jelly salad, deep dish apple pie, milk, coffee.

just before you go and let them cook very slowly until you come home. The potatoes and carrots will cook in thirty minutes while you are setting the table and arranging the salad.

Jellied Tomato Salad

Two cups canned tomatoes, 1 teaspoon gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 whole cloves, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1-2 cup celery leaves, 1-2 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Cook tomatoes, sugar, cloves, onion, celery leaves, salt and pepper for fifteen minutes. Simmer closely covered. Strain through a fine strainer and bring again to the boiling point. Add gelatin which has been softened in cold water for five minutes. Remove at once from heat and let cool. Add lemon juice and turn into individual molds to chill and become

Dr. Warren H. Corey And Miss Schaeffer Will Wed Saturday

Ceremony Will Take Place at Episcopal Church; Both are Well Known

Mrs. Marian Chase Schaeffer, 318 West Douglas avenue, announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Suzanne, to Dr. Warren Howard Corey. The wedding will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Trinity Episcopal church, with Dr. George S. Patterson officiating.

The attendants will be Miss Frances H. Levy of Chicago, bridesmaid, and the groom's cousin, Calvin Corey of Springfield, will be best man. The bride will be given in marriage by her mother, Miss Miriam Havighurst at the organ will give a recital of wedding selections preceding the ceremony.

Miss Schaeffer has been a resident of Jacksonville for three years, since she came to this city from Chicago.

firm. Unmold on a bed of lettuce and serve with mayonnaise.

Deep Dish Apple Pie

Fill a shallow baking dish with pared, cored and sliced apples. Sprinkle with sugar, using one cup for five medium sized apples. Rub 1 tablespoon flour into 2 tablespoons butter and dot over apples. Sprinkle with cinnamon and cover with plain pastry. Dampen the edge of the baking dish so the pastry will stick to it and be sure to cut the usual gashes in the dough before putting it over the fruit. Press the dough closely against the rim of the dish with rolling pin and then print with the tines of the fork. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) until apples are tender.

She has been prominent in collegiate affairs.

She graduated from the Francis Parker School of Chicago, receiving her A. B. degree in English and history from MacMurray College last June. Miss Schaeffer attended the University of Illinois in her freshman year where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta society.

Dr. Corey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Corey, South East street. He graduated from the Jacksonville High school and received his professional degree from the School of Dentistry at the Washington University of Missouri, four years ago. He has been practicing in Jacksonville since his graduation.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother. Immediately after, the bridal couple will leave for Chicago.

Guests will attend from Chicago, Beverly Hills, Evanston, Springfield, and Toledo, O.

ASHLAND COUPLE WED HERE CHRISTMAS EVE

Edwin Harris and Miss Dorothy Poore, both of the Ashland community, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Christmas eve by Rev. D. C. Byus at his residence. The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poore, parents of the bride, and attended by Robert Hendriker and Miss Dorothy Salzman. They will reside on a farm near Ashland.

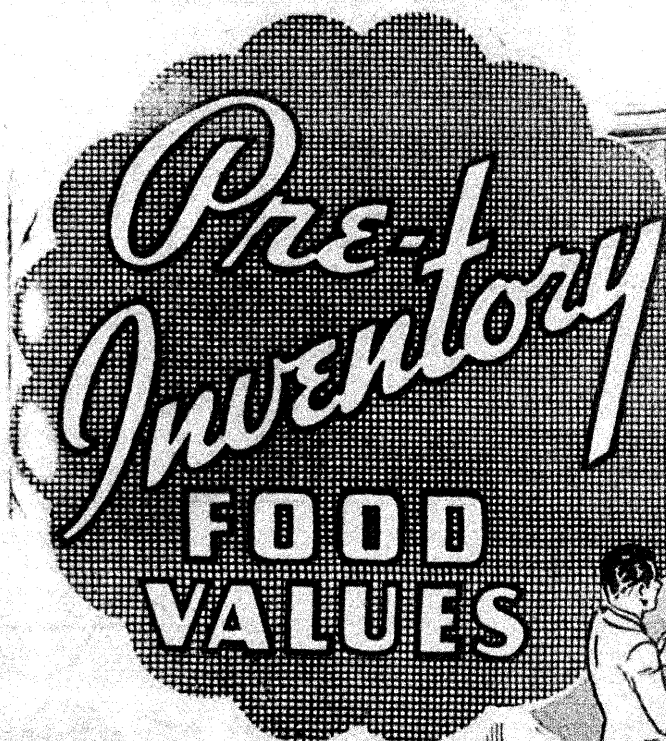

HORNER CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED IN CITY

A Horner for Governor meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the court house, it was announced yesterday. A club is expected to be organized at that time to forward the governor's candidacy for renomination and reelection. Temporary officers will be elected and committees appointed.

BETTER INCOME IN OFFING IF SMALL FRUIT IS MULCHED

Urbana, Ill.—Proper mulching of such small fruit as gooseberries, currants, raspberries, and blackberries during the early part of the winter will enable many Illinois growers to produce higher quality crops and realize better cash returns in 1936, according to V. W. Kelley, fruits extension specialist at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Production of large, good quality berries that bring the top prices on the market can be had only by vigorous growth of healthy plants. Mulching is one of the most important factors in bringing about such growth. It supplies much needed humus and helps preserve moisture to tide the plants through possible dry spells during the growing season.

In addition mulch composed of straw manure will furnish fertilizer in the form of nitrogen and help keep down weed growth next spring. Another function is that of imparting added vigor to the smaller bramble canes. Unless these canes are as large or larger than the thumb, they will not have sufficient vigor to produce good fruit without the assistance of the mulch.

The straw and manure should be applied to a depth of from six to eight inches and in a strip at least two feet wide down each row, Kelley said. Home fruit growers may wish to cover the entire area between the rows, since this will help reduce the amount of cultivation necessary.

Man Confesses Robbing Cafe

Chicago, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Le Roy Franklin, 36, who said he was an entertainer appeared at the office of Chief Lester Laird of the county highway police today and confessed he had robbed a Pontiac Ill. cafe of $65 last August.

Franklin, who said he had been employed at the Vermillion cafe there, told Chief Laird he escaped in an automobile parked outside, drove to Jersey City, N. J., and abandoned the car.

After wandering around the country, Franklin said, he came to Chicago and decided to surrender today because he had "never been in trouble before."

A telephone call to Pontiac verified his story, Chief Laird said, and the entertainer was held for Pontiac police.

The Carrier Mills team wound up a nine game pre-Christmas schedule with several victories in each effort, and have a team that probably will be ranked along with the rangiest in the state.

Sport Roundup

BY ANDY CLARK

New York, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Back in the holiday days of 1914 that Sam Green, Iowa quarterback, pulled this one out of his back pocket.

Tony Corso, one of Hillsboro's prize athletes, may be done with basketball for the rest of the season as the result of a kidney ailment.

Corso, ranked high in the prep football circles during the recent season, and was making a name for himself as a basketball player when illness struck him down.

Wilbur Layman writes that one Central Illinois coach, who thought he might pick up some easy tickets as a "Trader Horn" and traded all of his officiating with other coaches, has

Prep Quintets Will Return To Efforts

Rushville To Invade Ashland And Waverly Goes To Franklin Tonight

Basketball teams in two neighboring cities will get back on the hardwoods tonight against old rivals.

Waverly, with a one point victory over Franklin earlier this year on its own court to uphold, will return the visit at Franklin tonight, while Rushville, with a reputation for the strongest teams in its history, will take on the Ashland quintet.

Three two games will have to serve the basketball bugs for this district, although holiday tournaments now are underway at Pontiac, Bloomington and Milton, among other cities.

One long engagement is on the books for Saturday night in this area. The Franklin high varsity will meet former rivals in a double header contest for that night.

Tigers Must Fight For Their Jobs

By Earl J. Hilligan

Associated Press Sports Writer

Detroit, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Manager Mickey Cochrane promised today there'll be a "wide open scramble" for regular jobs on the Detroit Tigers when he takes his world champions south to start building a team for 1936.

"Just because we won the world series last season, doesn't mean I'm going to adopt any 'stand-pat' policy that would assure every 1935 regular job to the players," Cochrane said.

"We're going to improve the club—A lot of other clubs are going to be better—and every player taken south for spring training is going to get a chance to earn a regular position, whether he is a rookie or not."

Don Ross, from Beaumont, and Gilbert English, from Portland, both third basemen, picked Chad Kimey, from Menard, and Rudy York, from Beaumont, as all-around players, looking like they have the stuff to make the team.

"If they hustle, others' reputations aren't going to stand in their way of catching on."

Cochrane predicted a hot fight for outfield positions. Gerald Walker, the Tiger "bad boy," Al Simmons, recently acquired from the Chicago White Sox for $75,000, the veteran Goose Goslin, Pete Fox, Joyner White and York all will be fighting to be classed as regulars.

"I'm satisfied the pitching will be good," said Mickey. "Kimey should help and I look for Schoolboy Rowe to have a much better year, while Ernie, Auker and Crowder also will be as good as they were in 1935."

"I'm not going to let club business keep me off the playing field any more than I have to, and I expect to catch 120 games, as many as I have for the past few seasons."

Cochrane believes Boston will be hard to beat next year and looks for New York and Cleveland to be improved. The St. Louis Browns, he said, will "cause trouble" if they get help in the pitching department.

COLD WAVE VICTIM

Alhambra, Ill., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Herbert Schuerman, 71, was found dead today in the yard of his home near here, apparently a victim of the extreme cold.

The body was found by Mrs. Mary Schuerman, his wife, on her return from a Christmas party at nearby Livingston, to which her husband declined to go yesterday because of the near-zero temperatures.

Sports Leaders Discuss Drinking

Associated Press Sports Writer

New York, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's sudden flight from America was regretted and criticized today by two speakers at the tenth annual luncheon meeting of the Sportsmanship Brotherhood.

The subject which had been assigned to four speakers was "Excessive drinking" and attendant rowdiness and lawlessness at football games. But the talk turned, however, to the Lindberghs when Dr. William Mather Lewis, President of Lafayette College, lamented the existence of such conditions as to send "distinguished citizens" in the quest of refuge, and Captain Frederic Snyder, a national authority on secondary school education, said Lindbergh "should have asked for a uniform instead of a transfer."

"The sporting thing for him to have done," said Capt. Snyder, "would have been to have remained at home and rallied the youth of the country in a drive against the lawless. He'll receive no more protection in England or in any other country than he can receive right here."

And that reminds us of one of those things that happened this year between two coaches who traded games. One coach worked in a game at the other coach's home town, and called five technical fouls when the coach substituted an entirely new team at the start of the second half, and the substitutes forgot to report to the scorer.

A couple weeks later the coaches changed around, and the same situation came up, except that two of the players on the team reported to the scorers, but the other three did not. So the official called three technical fouls, which leaves the first coach two up.

Still more humor is injected into the situation by the fact that the rules allow for only one technical foul regardless of the number of boys who fail to report to the scorers.

Basketball fans in general are taking kindly to the new method of putting the ball in play after a successful free throw. They believe it speeds up the game, along with the elimination of the pivot-post type of offense, under the three second rule.

So. Methodists Enroute To West

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 26.—(AP)—The Southern Methodist University football squad, in tip-top shape to a man, moved westward tonight for the Rose Bowl game with Stanford New Year's Day at Pasadena.

Thirty-one players were aboard a train that departed at noon, with Coaches Matty Bell, Vic Hurt and Charlie Trigg.

"Barring illness, we'll take the field New Year's Day with more playing strength than at any other time this season," Bell said.

"We have had injured players on the squad all season but our long rest since the Texas A. & M. game has allowed the boys to recover and regain their enthusiasm."

The long rest was well needed. The Mustangs reached the end of their 12-game regular schedule battered and worn though still unbeaten and untied. Knee injuries, which put several stars on the bench the latter part of the season, have responded to treatment. When the squad tackles Stanford it will be at full strength in every position.

Among the ex-cripples is Harry Shuford, line-ripping fullback and signal caller who, before a twisted knee put him on the sidelines, starred as a blocker and ground gainer. Little Bobby Wilson, the 147-pound broken field runner who piled up 73 points during the season and at the same time dodged injury, is rested and ready.

The several hundred Dallas fans who saw the team off centered their cheers on Wilson, the diminutive All-American backfielder, and the stocky Shuford.

Tomorrow the Mustangs stop at Tucson, Arizona, for a few hours to work out at the University of Arizona stadium. They will pull into Pasadena Saturday morning and finish their pre-game practice at Occidental College.

Bell indicated he would start Johnny Sprague at quarterback; Wilson and Shelley Burt at the halves, and Shuford at fullback. The forward wall is certain to include Tipton and Stewart at ends; Orr and Spain, tackles; Westel and Stamps at guards and Johnson at center.

Rose Bowl Tickets Bring Big Profits To Scalping Racket

Pasadena, Calif.—(AP)—In the pool room vernacular, four dollars forty cents may get you a hundred, if you are dealing in Rose bowl tickets of the right location.

With approximately $4,000 seats available and more than 300,000 persons clamoring to see the football game here New Year's day between Stanford and Southern Methodist, the scalpers are riding high.

One hundred dollars is top price, of course, but a prominent Hollywood motion picture producer paid it with a smile. He bought two tickets.

Most tickets are being scalped, however, at from $30 to $50 apiece for the best of the $40 variety with those back of the goal posts around $10 each.

While every effort is being made to keep down scalping, the duet bootleggers report a brisk business. Actual profit to each individual involved is, however, small. The middleman is cutting into the racket.

One illicit ticket dealer told of paying an original purchaser $14 each for eight. They burned his jeans for a day until the Christmas shopping rush forced him to unload for a $50 profit to a "middleman" who was peddling the lithographed pasteboards to a prominent motion picture actor.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

Kewanee, Ill., Dec. 26.—(AP)—The body of Joseph Davis, 61, was found in the basement of his home today, the throat cut with a razor. Friends said he had been ill earlier today, and had feared that if he did not report for work at the factory where he was employed he would be discharged.

Among the Thursday callers here yesterday was B. F. Wilson of Franklin.

Declares He Will Not Cross Florida Straits Into Cuba With Cardinals During Spring

Tampa, Fla.—(AP)—Brandishing a tract full of bills which his wife won at the opening of the Sulphur Springs dog track, Dizzy Dean declared today he wanted $7,000 more salary from his Cardinals bosses next year.

Furthermore, he said, he would make no trip to Cuba. Once was enough, and the memory of a seasick spell in crossing the Florida Straits caused him to add this to his reasons for balking at a St. Louis contract.

SHOOT A 65

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Al Kreuger, former baseball pitcher from Beloit, Wis., hung up a 65, three strokes under par, to capture the lead in the first round of the fourth annual $4,000 Pasadena open golf championship today.

Kreuger's sensational putting paved the way for his out round of 34, two under par. And a 54 in one under par. He ran down points of 20, 33 and 30 feet.

One stroke behind Kreuger, in second place, was George Schneider, Ogden, Utah, professional.

Lloyd Dahman of Franklin was a Thursday business visitor in the city.

Woman Justice of Peace Officiates At Xmas Wedding

Justice Geraldine Frazier Unites Greene County Couple Tuesday

White Hall—Lee Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grady of Hillview, and Miss Lucille VanMeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude VanMeter of the Walkerville vicinity, were united in marriage, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frazier on Douglas street. Mrs. Frazier, whose official name is Geraldine Flynn Frazier, and who is the first woman to be elected justice of the peace in White Hall, performed the ceremony.

The witnesses were Roy Grady and Rollin VanMeter, brothers of the groom and his bride. This is the second marriage service that Mrs. Frazier has performed since she was elected last spring.

Miss Della Kinser, daughter of Mr. L. R. Kinser and Charles Black, both of the same neighborhood in the Walkerville township, were united in marriage in Jerseyville, Wednesday, Dec. 18, and have gone to housekeeping in the groom's home.

The ceremony at Pearl conducted by John Jones, had been making trips a part of each day up until Christmas day, when the ice filled the Illinois river, making the trips hazardous. Persons wanting to go to Pike county from White Hall, when the river is frozen over, have to go by way of Jacksonville to the Florence bridge adding a mileage of more than forty miles.

Enters Spelling Match

Miss Edith Hyatt, principal of the White Hall grade school and Jonnetta Linfield, daughter of the Methodist pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Linfield, went to Springfield, Wednesday evening, where Jonnetta will represent Greene county in the state spelling contest, having already won first place in the Greene county contest. It will be remembered that Miss Hyatt coached Ward Randall, champion of the United States a few years ago, after he had won the county and state contests.

Sing Christmas Carols

Groups of Christmas carollers were out singing to shut-ins and those who had made requests, Christmas eve. One group was composed of high school girls and included Betty Ross, Helen Marie Raines, and her guest, Mary Louise Turner of Fulton, Mo. Jean Barnett, Arabelle Roodhouse, Jane and Joan Lyman, and Norma Dean Vandever.

A larger group of older people from the Methodist church included the pastor, Rev. A. E. Linfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughan and their guests, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas of Chicago, Hazel Scott, Roy and Howard Scoggins, Merle Bishop, Grover Hitch, Kathryn Erb, Cecilia Hahn, Margaret Wynn, Barbara Kirgan and Mary Evelyn Bogges. This group sang at various homes in the city for about three hours.

School Entertainment
Swamp College Community Club and school held a joint Christmas program at the school Monday evening, with the school putting on the program under the direction of the teacher, Miss Brickey. The school house was crowded with spectators. Santa Claus distributed a special treat to the children and pop corn and home made candy were served to everybody. Mrs. Verne Price is president of the club.

A number of family Christmas dinners were served around the city Wednesday. Miss Bonnie Gollner was hostess at the family home on Centennial street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawdy and daughter, Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neal and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lyman and family, Miss Eva Gollner of White Hall, and Misses Louise Gollner and Martha Symonds of Murrayville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neece entertained at their home on Jacksonville street at a family dinner Wednesday. Those present included Mrs. Sam Scott, Dean Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Neece, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Atchinson of White Hall and Harry Johnson of St. Louis. An item of interest is that Mrs. John Neece visited her son's home for the first time since last Christmas. She is in poor health and although she lives only a few blocks from his home she seldom makes the effort to leave her home.

Mrs. Thomas Hearn entertained Mrs. Sophronia Rickert, Mrs. Ethel Ross and son and daughter, Richard and Betty Ross at her home on Carrollton street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Sullivan and sons, spent Christmas day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thompson on West State street in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Dawdy spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones in Roodhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Heberling spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carmean in Roodhouse.

Mrs. Jane Riggs entertained her children and grandchildren at Christmas dinner at her home on Israel street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hudson and family, Mr. and Mrs. William McCarthy and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Riggs and family, and Mrs. Lulu Riggs Loving of Joy, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nash entertained at dinner Wednesday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Manz of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Perdue and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Jerseyville; Kenneth Nash and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Winters. It was the first time in twenty-three years their family circle had been broken on Christmas. Their son, Keith Nash, is now serving in the navy on the battleship, Minneapolis, stationed at San Pedro, California.

Students at Home
Many young people are here for the holidays visiting with home folks, among them being Miss Beryl Galaway, who teaches in the high school at Bridgeport, Ill., and her sister, Mrs. Peter Kittell from Arkansas, who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Galaway on West Bridgeport street. William Frazier of Springfield, visited with relatives this week.

Lucy Lynn Smith, a senior at Normal University, Normal, Alice Smith, who is taking nurses training in Jacksonville, and Edward Smith of St. Louis, spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith on West Franklin street. Lucy Lynn Smith is spending the week here.

Robert Walker, a freshman at Purdue University at Lafayette, Indiana, is here for the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Walker on North Main street.

Mary Louise Weiss who is attending school in Springfield, is here for the holiday with her father, Frank Weiss. Halle Gahuly of the University of Illinois is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gahuly on Carrollton street.

Max Evans of the University of Illinois and her friend, Marjory Edwards of Boston, Massachusetts, also a student at the university, and Eleanor Evans who is attending school at Winnetka are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans on West Franklin street. Other Christmas guests in the Evans home included their cousins, Edith Baldwin of Chicago and her twin sister, Edna Baldwin of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hamilton of St. Louis.

It has been estimated that American forests capture and store as much of the sun's energy annually as is contained in one and a half billion tons of coal.

Veteran Blacksmith Of Greene County Summoned by Death

Amos G. Smith Expires Early Thursday In White Hall; William Wells Dies

White Hall—Amos G. Smith, veteran Greene county blacksmith, died at 1:40 o'clock Thursday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Watt, on North Main street. He was 81 years of age and was born near Carrollton. Death was due to a series of strokes of paralysis, which began six weeks ago.

Mr. Smith had been a blacksmith in White Hall for the past 18 years. Previously he conducted shops at Patterson and at Barrow. Only failing health compelled him to close his shop a short time ago. Last summer his house burned, and he has since been residing with his daughter. His wife, Addie E. Lakin Smith preceded him in death 15 months ago.

Decedent is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jesse Watt, and two grandchildren, Leitha Norine and Marjorie Watt. He leaves also a brother and sister, Robert M. Smith and Mrs. Mary Lister, both of White Hall. He was a member of the Roodhouse Masonic lodge and the Barrow Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held from the Watt home on North Main street at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon, in charge of the Rev. Ernest Dawdy of Patterson, with interment in the Edwards cemetery west of Barrow.

Wells, 77, a resident of Patterson, died at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. He is survived by his wife, Zora East Wells; one sister, Mrs. Ben Ford of Carrollton, and two brothers, Elain Wells of Patterson, and George, near Springfield.

The remains are at the Mackey funeral home in Roodhouse. Funeral

Walsh Services are Held at Jerseyville

Funeral Thursday At Catholic Church For Member Of Well Known Family

Jerseyville—Mrs. Mary Jean Walsh, wife of Martin Walsh, prominent farmer of Jersey county, died at her home Sunday morning, Dec. 22, at 11 o'clock.

For some time the deceased has been in failing health, but was able to come to Jerseyville Saturday afternoon. That evening her condition became worse and death ensued within a few hours.

Mrs. Walsh was the daughter of Patrick O'Donnell and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Hays O'Donnell of Grafton, and was born in Jersey county June 24, 1863. At the time of her death she was aged 62 years 8 months 24 days. Mrs. Walsh is survived by her husband; one son, Martin Francis, one daughter, Bernadette; her father, Patrick O'Donnell of Grafton, and six sisters, Mrs. J. C. Leady of East St. Louis, Mrs. Donald Bergman and Miss Monica O'Donnell of Chicago, Catherine, Elizabeth, and Mary O'Donnell of Grafton; two brothers, Charles of Sheffield, Ala., and Francis of Grafton.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 26, at St. Francis Xavier's church in Jerseyville. Requiem high mass was celebrated. Rev. John J. Clancy, celebrant, and interment was in the St. Francis cemetery.

Sales Tax Tokens No Longer in Use Throughout State

Finance Director K. L. Ames, Jr., said 25,000,000 of the mill-and-a-half tokens have been placed in circulation. We now have the problem of getting them back, he said. Ames inaugurated the token system last July. Other uses have been found or some of the tokens that no longer cross the counters as sales tax collection units. A report from Waukegan said the metal pieces are used as playthings for children and as counters in games of Backgammon and other like amusements. Some merchants reported they are accepting tokens only "to buy the continued patronage of a customer." Others said the customers, who were to be the original beneficiaries, are the ones demanding the abandonment because tokens clutter up pockets and are difficult to calculate and cause confusion. From nearly all cities it was indicated that the swing back to the bracket system began two months ago on a large scale.

Church Unity Plan Urged by Leaders

New York (AP)—Twenty-nine leaders of a movement to unite Protestant Episcopal churches in America with the Roman Catholic church have appealed to Protestant Episcopal clergymen for support of the plan. Coupled with the plan, written by the American committee of the Church Unity Octave Council, was criticism that Protestantism has become "bankrupt ethically, culturally, morally, and religiously." The committee's statement accompanied a letter to ministers by the Rev. Franklin Joiner, rector of St. Clement's church of Philadelphia. The group consists of 20 Protestant Episcopal clergymen, two members of religious orders, and seven laymen.

Ethiopia Expels

Man Said to Be Spy

Sixth Person Deported on Charges of Espionage

Addis Ababa, (AP)—The Ethiopian government's secret police, pressed their intensive drive against suspected Italian spies today, expelling a Greek whose name was published as Dimitri Kirakoulakis.

Officials charged him with being an accomplice of Josef Hintersatz and Ladislav Phraggo, who were expelled from Ethiopia Dec. 21 on charges of espionage and pro-Italian activities.

The Ethiopian government also informed sources said, was now employing government counter-spies in an attempt to break up what it believed to be a big espionage ring.

Kirakoulakis is the sixth person to be deported from Ethiopia under charges of espionage. Among the others expelled were a Greek lawyer and an Armenian doctor.

Deportation is considered the supreme penalty for foreigners as no whites are executed in Ethiopia.

In ancient days, migrating birds crossed the Mediterranean in such numbers that they sank sailing vessels by settling on them to rest their wings.

Temperatures were as low as eight below zero last night, but the strong northwest wind died down before midnight, ending the drifting of the snow that measures from four to seven inches throughout the state.

State highway officials warned that driving conditions were hazardous with an ice pack on the pavement in the central region.

Reports this morning to the division of highways headquarters said that

With All My Love

by Mary Raymond
Copyright NEA 1935

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Against the wishes of her grandmother, aristocratic WILLIAM CAMERON, DANA WESTBROOK married a struggling young physician, DR. SCOTT STANLEY.

Before her marriage she had broken with her wealthy family and had married a man who had no money, no position, no family, no friends, no one to help her in her life.

Paula, a patient of Scott's, is always calling him and managing to see him behind an impenetrable wall of Paul's infatuation.

Scott, deeply in love with his wife, is uncomfortable over the situation.

One night Paula's housekeeper calls Scott and tells him Paula is ill. He goes to see her and Paula confesses her love for him. When Scott's indifference and his refusal to return her love, she goes mad.

Now go on with the story. CHAPTER XXXII

SCOTT lifted his glass from the tray. Paula was showing her teeth to be game, all right. She hadn't whimpered or made a plea for sympathy when he told her he knew the truth.

Then, like a flash, came the premonition. Was she, though? Could you trust an emotional woman in a state like this?

It may have been Paula's expression that warned him. There was a glow of triumph and tragedy in her eyes. Scott dashed his glass and its contents to the floor.

As he quickly, Paula put her hand out, knocking it aside. Paula crumpled, sobbing. They were jerking sobs that sounded horrible and pitiful.

Scott lifted her and called to Charlotte loudly. Together they worked swiftly. He was fairly certain that Paula had not swallowed any of the poisoned drink, but he could not take chances. They worked over her exactly as though she had taken a fatal quantity.

An hour later Scott talked frankly with Charlotte. There had been no need for explanations. Charlotte's horrified glance at the broken glasses and trail of liquor on the floor had told her the story.

It was as though she had been told the poison tablets and dropped them into the fire, while Scott watched gravely.

Quietly by a sleeping powder, Paula at last dropped into sleep. Her face was pale on the pillow. A thin hand gripped the dainty lace coverlet convulsively.

Scott stared, quietly watching as she slept, waiting for any unnatural reaction. Across from him sat Charlotte, her eyes scarcely moving from Paula's face.

SCOTT said in a low tone, "I can trust you, Charlotte. No one must know of this—or the other. Soon we'll get Miss Paula away where she can be treated and cured."

"You can trust me, Doctor Scott," the housekeeper said. "She's like my own. You know I've been with her since she was 15 years old."

Scott remembered. He was thinking that Paula had never known real home life. Charlotte had been the maid-of-Paula's frivolous young mother, and had assumed full charge when the young mother died. Paula's father was somewhere, but he had been divorced by Paula's mother and re-married, before her death. Paula's money had been inherited from her mother.

Poor Paula, Scott thought, compassionately, stretching out for happiness with her eager, restless hands. When it sluded her, she had tried to smash things for both of them.

He was as certain as though he had analyzed the drink Paula had handed him that it also had contained poison. But he felt only pity for the distraught creature lying motionless on the bed, as though she were in that deep sleep of complete forgetfulness for which she had longed.

At dawn a nurse arrived to take charge. She, of course, must know of her patient's attempt at suicide to be on guard.

She would know the rest, without being told as soon as she had been on the case a few hours. But Miss Maddox was trustworthy, one of that gallant army in whom so many tragic truths are safely buried.

SCOTT let himself into the apartment and looked around. He switched on a light in the bedroom and the lamp, empty bed and chair. There was a note pinned to the pillow, with Dana's name affixed in a shaky scrawl.

SCOTT read the note, smiling grimly over its childish sound: "I'm going to Grandmother's to stay, Scott. I'm going while I can leave with some dignity. Please don't ask me to come back. I don't want to—ever. Dana."

His first impulse was to get Dana on the telephone to tell her what a darn little fool she was. And then get a cab and fetch her home immediately.

But it was 5 o'clock now. There'd probably be a commotion. He'd probably be seen one. No, it would be best to wait until the next morning. Then, after some sleep, she would be sorry and probably call to apologize.

She owed him an apology for her lack of faith and her attitude, which was certainly poor sportsmanship. She couldn't have known where he had gone. Even if she had suspected, she might have given him the benefit of doubt and waited for his story.

She would be awfully sorry that she had failed him when she thought things over. Dashing back to her grandmother's the first time she got really angry with him.

In spite of these thoughts Scott was wretchedly unhappy. It was not until the light was streaming broadly into the room through the window that he fell into a deep sleep of exhaustion.

Dana's grandmother had sworn the doorbell. In the Highways

Reopened to Traffic

after an hour's work on Route 49 in Ingham county, all the main paved roads would be open to traffic, although many routes were still on a one-way basis.

By midnight, snow plows were expected to open up two-way lanes on all marked highways and on the off-routes under state maintenance.

Forecasting rising temperatures for tomorrow, the weather bureau announced that the mercury dropped to below zero last night at Cairo, two below at Springfield, two above at Chicago and 14 above at Alton. Sub-zero temperatures were reported from other sections of Illinois.

Driving conditions were poorest from Springfield to Moline, Princeton and Chicago, state maintenance men said.

opening January 8, eight days hence. Roosevelt men were striving for a short and harmonious session and there were reports that President Roosevelt might not have much to propose in the way of major legislation beyond a new neutrality bill and appropriation measures.

In Republican ranks, however, there was strong sentiment for breaking the whole fight over the New Deal wide open again in an aggressive attack on administration men and policies.

Most plans, however, were contingent on what the supreme court does about the six major pieces of legislation now before it for review.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reichenbach of St. Louis spent Christmas Day with relatives in this city.

Quintuplets Reported by Nicaraguans

Managua, Nicaragua. (AP)—The birth of quintuplets to a Nicaraguan couple was reported in the Managua press today.

The parents of the children, Are Senor and Senora Timoteo Laines, residents of the village of Sabana Grande, in the department (state) of Matagalpa.

The quintuplets consist of three boys and two girls, all in perfect health.

Medical authorities here were interested in the report but worried because the infant death rate is high in Nicaragua, especially in the outlying districts such as Matagalpa, where communications are meagre.

Political Parties Prepare for Session

Washington. (AP)—In a capital whittled by a Yuletide snowstorm, New Dealers and their opponents concentrated today on strikingly different plans for the new session of congress.

5 Killed, 8 Injured

In Ethiopian Fight; Italians Nab Spies

Three Turned Over to Firing Squad to Be Shot in Back; Jail Nine

Rome. (AP)—Five Ethiopians were killed and six wounded in a Christmas-day skirmish with Danakil warriors fighting under the Italian banner, an official communiqué reported today.

"On the eastern slope of the plateau toward the Danakil, a group of Ethiopian warriors tried to ascend with assault to the plateau," the communiqué said.

"The Ethiopians left five dead and six wounded on the field."

"Our reconnaissance in the Takaze sector (west of the main northern line) has not encountered any enemy resistance."

Aviation in Somaliland bombarded the Dawa Farms and Ganale Doria rivers converging on Dola, where the Italian southern army is based on the frontier between Italian Somaliland and Ethiopia.

Italy's armies fought apnea, as well as Ethiopia, over the Christmas holidays, dispatches from the war zone disclosed.

Marshall Pietro Badoglio's military police rounded up twelve natives wearing Italian uniforms and brought them before summary court martial for spying against the Fascist forces.

Three were turned over to the firing squad, to be shot in the back, while

THEIR voices brought Miss Carver and Nancy. Aunt Ellen patted Dana awkwardly. Dana knew she was sorry for her, and she suspected that Aunt Ellen was sorry for Scott, too.

It was hard to know how Nancy felt. Her face looked wisely into Dana's. Her voice was cool and calm. "So you've left Scott? That's that. Now we've got to make the best of it. I don't believe Scott would want you back, anyway, after humiliating him."

No, Dana thought, miserably. "He wouldn't want me back." Because she had humiliated him, by leaving him. And because, most of all, he was infatuated with Paula.

But this was a secret that would die with her. She'd never, if she lived to be a hundred, admit that she hadn't been able to hold her husband.

Nancy had decided: "Dana's weak. She couldn't stand being poor, so she pulled out."

Poor, Cameron was first to break her circle. She got up, pulling her robe about her. "Well, all take cold sitting here," she said firmly. "Dana looks dead on her feet. She must get some sleep."

Secretly she was jirding her resources for battle. She said to herself, "The silly child is still in love with him. It's written all over her face. If he tries he might be able to persuade her to go back to him. But she'll stay here if I can keep her!"

After breakfast Dana sat in the vicinity of the telephone, fully expecting it to ring. But the morning hours wore away and there was no call from Scott.

He was showing more judgment, Mrs. Cameron thought, than she had expected. Maybe he, too, had decided it was impossible for them to make a success of their marriage.

If that were so, the plan she had in mind, could be speedily carried out.

Scott Relief Rolls Have 143 Eligible For Age Pensions

Announce Eligibility List For Social Security News Notes

Winchester, Dec. 26.—According to information received by Relief Administrator Guy R. Coddington which was compiled and distributed by the Illinois Emergency Relief commission there are a total of 143 people from the relief rolls in Scott county who will be eligible for relief under the provisions of the Social Security Act as passed by congress at the last session and the recent session of the state legislature. This number includes those who will be eligible for old age pensions, blind pensions and aids to dependent children. There are a total of 133 who are now receiving relief and this figure represents about one fourth of the total relief cases as of September of this year.

It is thought however that there are many people of 65 years and upwards who will be eligible for the pension who are not now and never have been on relief.

Makes Plea For More Funds For State Schools

C. E. Vance, Danville Says Financial Crisis Still Exists

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 26.—A plea for more state school funds was made tonight by C. E. Vance, Danville, president of the Illinois State Teachers' Association, addressing the Association's annual convention here.

Vance declared maintenance of the schools was primarily a state, and not a local, responsibility. He said a financial crisis still exists and urged teachers to exert pressure on candidates for office for more school funds.

T. E. Benner, dean of education at the University of Illinois, addressed the 500 delegates on results of the survey made of state educational problems by the advisory committee of the governor's education commission.

Reforms in the educational system and more money for schools were two of the recommendations made by the advisory committee, he said.

The teachers were meeting with the County Superintendents' Association of Illinois, which today heard talks by Otis Kerkler, T. A. Reynolds, and Charles C. Stedman, state superintendent of public instruction, Dean Benner and H. W. McCullough, Livingston county superintendent.

Clipper Mail Ship Makes Fast Time

Alameda, Calif. Dec. 26.—(AP)—More than four hours were topped off the flying time between the Philippines and the United States by the Philippine Clipper which arrived today with the second half of ocean air mail.

Ending a 2,400-mile flight from Honolulu in 17 hours, 27 minutes, the big flying boat completed the 8,000 miles from Manila in 58 hours, 52 minutes. The 16,000-mile round-trip required 118 hours, 56 minutes.

The China Clipper, which completed the inaugural ocean air mail trip December 4, flew from Manila in 66 hours, 28 minutes, and made the round-trip in 123 hours, 14 minutes.

Tail winds aided the Philippine Clipper enroute at an average speed of 135 miles an hour.

HOLD FINAL RITES FOR EMIL WERNLE IN CITY THURSDAY

Funeral services for Emil Frank Wernle were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the O'Donnell & Reavy Funeral Chapel, Rev. M. L. Pontius conducting the services.

Songs during the services were sung by A. W. Waltham, Ben Denny, Emerson Lewis and Wayne Carter.

The large display of floral offerings was cared for by the Misses Martelle Beemer, Aileen Beemer and Lillian Thompson.

The casket bearers were Robert Colwell, Frank Clancy, Walter Bates, Jesse Hawk, George Wilkerson and Albert Bray.

Friends and relatives from a distance in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wernle of Bundy county and Mr. and Mrs. William Schen of New Glenna, Wisconsin.

Interment was made in Elmhurst cemetery. Emil Frank Wernle was born January 6, 1894, in Bundy county, Illinois, and departed this life at his home at 331 West Lafayette avenue on Dec. 24, 1935, at the age of 41 years, 10 months and 18 days. He was married on the 24th day of November, 1917, to Lavada Alice Beemer, daughter of the late Charles and Lucy Beemer of this city, who preceded him to death on Jan. 8, 1930.

To this union two children were born, Emil Elson and Gerald Allan. Emil is survived by his mother, both parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wernle of Bundy county, Ill., and five brothers, John, Henry, Edwin, Erwin and Harold; and two sisters, Mrs. William Schen of New Glenna, Wis., and Mrs. Fred Lurkin.

Voters Of Road District Approve Issuance Of Bonds

Vote Overwhelmingly For Project To Gravel 60 Miles Highway

Voters of Road District No. 7, which completely surrounds Jacksonville, voted overwhelmingly yesterday in favor of the issuance of $20,000 bonds for the purpose of graveling approximately 60 miles of roads in the district. The vote was 223 for the bond issue and 49 against. The election was held at the Silver Star Inn.

Harry E. Thompson, commissioner of the district, said last night that work on the project will be started as soon as weather permits.

The district will secure most of the gravel from a pit on the Charles Black farm north of Jacksonville. While hand labor will be used in most cases it is necessary to use a steam shovel at the pit for some of the heavy work.

The federal government will furnish practically all the labor and will provide for the hauling of the gravel from the pit to the roads. The government will also provide 17,450 yards of gravel.

Mr. Thompson has one year to complete the work, but believes that with favorable weather all the roads will have been covered by fall of 1936.

When the roads have received their coat of gravel, every highway leading into Jacksonville will be an all-weather road.

Mr. Oscar Glasgow and daughter, Elizabeth, are spending the holidays with Mr. Glasgow in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice Hamm, and three children, Mrs. Mildred Beard, Arenville; Mrs. John Anderson, Chapin; and Harold Hamm of St. Louis.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Concord, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Bring In Oil Well Near State Capitol

Oklahoma City, Dec. 26.—(AP)—A second oil well near the governor's mansion and Oklahoma's state capitol was drilled in today for an initial flow of 250 barrels of oil an hour.

The well is the British American's Mary Green, three blocks north of the mansion. Last week the British American's No. 1 Piersol, a block north of the mansion, was drilled in for an estimated 550 barrels of oil an hour.

Much of the exclusive Lincoln Terrace district to the south of the wells is in a restricted drilling zone but some oil companies are seeking to have the ban lifted and are offering $1,000 or more a lot for drilling leases.

RED CROSS SEAL SALE PASSES $800 MARK IN COUNTY

Receipts from the 1935 sale of Christmas seals, which must finance the anti-tuberculosis campaign, for Morgan county the coming year, yesterday had passed the $800 mark but were still short of the amount raised last year, it was announced by Miss Alpha Kilham, seal sale director.

"Any persons who have not mailed their contributions for the seals that were mailed to them early in December can help bring the year's fund to last year's mark by sending in their remittances now," Miss Kilham said. "The checks are just as acceptable, or more so, than earlier in the month. Many persons have told me they wished to wait until after Christmas to send their checks, so we are counting on these to aid in making up the shortage."

No Action On Plea To Release Dunlap From Jail Sentence

Effort To Obtain Pardon Apparently Failure Is Report

Washington, Dec. 26.—(AP)—A second effort to obtain a presidential pardon for Millard P. Dunlap, 78-year-old Jacksonville, Ill., banker, yesterday apparently had ended in failure.

The department of justice announced the records in the case which were sent to the white house several weeks ago had been returned without action.

Dunlap and Andrew Russell, former state treasurer and state auditor of Illinois, were convicted in connection with the failure of the Avera National bank at Jacksonville in 1923.

Bufiled while in prison, Dunlap, former treasurer of the National Democratic committee, was removed to a federal hospital at Springfield, Mo., a year ago when his physical condition was said to be serious.

About that time, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, United States minister to Denmark, interested herself in Dunlap's behalf and aided him in his first unsuccessful effort to obtain a pardon.

Dunlap was a close friend and political associate of her father, the late William Jennings Bryan.

Mrs. Owen was understood to have continued her interest in his case and to have intervened in his behalf in the second apparently unsuccessful effort to obtain a pardon.

Dunlap will complete his penitentiary sentence some time late next March. A recent report on his physical condition to the department of justice stated that except for the infirmities of age he was in fair condition.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen openly advocated the release of M. P. Dunlap, being active in his behalf in official circles in Washington. The daughter of William Jennings Bryan, who was a close friend of the Dunlap family, made plans of clemency to the attorney general and to the president.

It was a year ago in August that the former Avera National Bank president boarded a train in company with a U. S. deputy marshal, that carried him to Leavenworth, Kan., where he became a prisoner in the federal penitentiary. Later Dunlap was transferred to the Missouri prison hospital.

He was sentenced to eighteen months in prison and assessed a fine of several thousand dollars.
